THE aves and noes on Vaughan's bill in the Senate yesterday would have found the Republicans voting solidly against retrenchment.

the melting theme of a frigid speech by Mr. Snow in the Senate yesterday. A hideous nightmare. It is the tyrannical printers union of Raleigh that disturbs the peaceful slumbers of the Senator from Wake.

THE Secretary of States report is an intelligent and comprehensive paper. forbearing unmistakable testimony to the able and efficient administration of that important office. Such faithful and efficient public servants as the Secretary and his able chief clerk, Capt. Dudley, are invaluable to a State.

Vaughen's Bill.

The bill to reduce the price of the public printing introduced in the House by Mr. Vaughan, of Alleghany, and which passed that body nnauiimously on Saturday was considered in the Senate yesterday and referred to the committee on printing. Senators Dallard, Graham, Bynum. Alexander, and Henderson urged the passage of the bill. A responsible party had offered to do the work at the price stipulated in the bill, which was notice ot least to the Senate that the work could be done at the price, while the State was now paying one hundred per cent more. Mr. Robinson, of Macon, favored a reference of the bill, not that he opposed retrenchment but to satisfy himself that the work could be done at the News price.

The distinguished Seastor from Guilford, Mr. Caldwell, said the News proposition was an outrage and a reflection upon the preceding Legislature. The vote was taken and stood 23 to 23. The President of Senate Lt. Governor Jarvis, voted to refer and the reference was accordingly made. So endeth the 1st chapter.

Senator Graham's Bill. ...

Below we print an outline of the very important reform measure introduced in the Senate yesterday by the distinguished Senator from Lincoln, when the vote is taken the record will prove the fidelity of the Democratic cheap government. We shall watch Mr. Graham's bill with deep concern and interest. It makes the following reductions:

Governor's salary $3000 with Private Sec'y at $500 and fees. Treasurer $2750 with a clerk at $1250 who shall be ex-officio treasurer of the boards of charitable and penal institutions and reserve a salary of $75. for each board to be paid out of fuuds appropriated for the use of the board. Sec'y of State $1000, and fees not to exceed $1000, shall account to Treasuror for all fees and pay surplus over alowance into Treasury quarterly.

Auditor $1500. Superintendant Public Instruction

$1500. Librarian $500.

Keeper of Capitol $500.

Judges of Superior Court $2000. Fees, mileage and compensation of Clerks, Sheriffs and other county offi-

What we Eat and Drink.

AFTER reading the paper read before the American Social Science Association of Boston, a synopsis of which is elsewhere printed, it will be appropos for some member of the Legislature to introduce a bill for the prevention of cruelty to men, women and children. These facts possess a startling significance: New England Mills (and perhaps mills outside New England) are now engaged in grinding white stone into a fine powder, graded so as to adulterate soda, sugar, and flour sold at half a cent per pound. Flour is also adulterated with plaster of Paris, bone dust, sand, clay, chalk, and other articles. Graham flour, the food of the dyspeptic, is adulterated. Thousands of tons of "terra alba" or white earth, which produces kidney complaints and various diseases of the stomach when eaten, are mixed with sugars in confec tionery and for use in oream of tartar and other white substances. The proportion of this adulteration ranges from 83 to 75 per cent. The coloring matter of confectionery frequently contains lead, mercury, arsenic and copper Even the seasonings do not escape. Cayenne pepper is adulterated with red lead, mustard with chromate of lead, curry powder with red lead, and vinegar with sulphuric acid. arsenic and corrosive sublimate. The cheerful statement is made that probably half the vinegar now sold is rank poi son. Many of the flavoring o.ls, syrups, jellies and preserved truits are open to the same objection. The outlook is not found to be more encouraging when what we drink is considered. The adulterations of tea are too numerous to mention. Coffee is not only adulterated, but a patent has been taken out for moulding chicoory into the form of coffee berries, clay is also moulded and flavored with sessence to represent coffee. Cocoa and chocolate are adulterated with various minerai substance. Water is said to be the least dangerous adulteration of Merrimon Withdraws.

The Democratic caucus assembled last night to receive formal notice of Senator Merrimon's withdrawal from THE "starving laboring man" was the Senatorial contest. A representative of the Naws visited Senator Merrimon at his residence last night after the adjournment of the caucus. He said in substance: "I have withdrawn entirely from the Senatorial contest, and have asked my friends not to mention my name in connection therewith. My friends have ascertained that whatever may be the popular desire in reference to my re-election to the Senate, that causes and influences have been brought to bear to prevent my re-election. Waile I might have prolonged the contest yet for the sake of quiet and harmony of the Democratic party I deemed it my duty to take the o urse I have taken."

He spoke gracefully of his friends and p'easantly of his past relations with the NEWS.

After diligent search our representative failed to obtain a copy of the

For a long way from the shore it now piled up in many shapes and posiions, sometimes huge cakes of it standing up 4 or 5 feet above the general evel, while between the contracted channel is entirely filled by the mass of rushing ice. The Jews. [Extracts from Butler's spe ch at a Heb: ew tair in Beston.]

No devout, sincere Christian can doubt for a moment the wonderful character of the Hebrew race: Sprung from the loins of Abraham, they were, as we are to-night, by our Bible and yours, God's chosen peope, and for them he became legislator, guide and friend. He brought them into and out of Egppt by a tories of miracles, showing that of them be expected much in the economy of his universe; and when he thundered from Mount Sinai—amid the lightnings of that dreadful and terrible, yet glorious occasion to amid the lightneigs of that dreadful and terrible, yet glorious occasion to mankind—the best and highest code of laws ever promugated to man, they evinced their divine origin because in them were found two subjects intreated of that have never been incorporated in any ancient code of laws. He gave to Moses the great command, "Take thou no usury of thy brother." He gave to moses that oversight and that dnowledge that enabled him to embody in his code of laws better sanitary ragulation than have benembodied in ragulation than have benembedied in any code of laws since: and in all that remarkabl career of the Jewish nation, his chosen people, should come the emanation of his plan of salvation to markind; and from that nation has covered the Teath with civilization covered the Earth with civilization. (Prolonged applause.) His people remarkable manner, not as a nationfor they for a thousand years have of existed as a nation—but there has been a solidarity of people in the economy of the Jewish race that has kept them to themselves, although scattered all over the world, amid the greatest and most terrible prosecutions for many years, almost ages, that would have destroyed any other nation. The Hebrew nation is a nation distinguished for three characteristicsthe integrity, the thrift, and the industry of her men, and the purity, chastity and domestic virtues of her women. (Loud and prolonged applause.) I need pay no compliment where none is needed. I speak from knowledge upon the subject. For 40 years, save one, I have been conversant with the criminal court of Massachusetts and many other states, and I have never yet had a Hebrew client as a criminal (storms of applicate); but, you may say, that was because its Hebrews did not choose because the Hebrews did not choose because the Hebrews did not choose you for their lawy that is not the true and applause); but the answer, for I never yet the lawy a veritable answer, for I never yet the lawy a veritable in the prisoner's box for crime laracite in the prisoner's box for crime in my life (renewed applause); and, thinking of this matter, as I was comting here, I met a learned judge of one of the highest courts of the commonwealth, of more than 40 years' experience at the bar and the bench, and I put ence at the bar and the ben the same question to him, and he said efflect; he neither at the bar nor the bench had ever seen any Hebrew arraigned for crime. (Thunders of ap-

Another fact is that the Jewish race. having remained intact for so many years, must come from some preordina-tion of the Aimighty, that they should tion of the Aimighty, that they should keep themselves to themselves to return again and possess the promised land after more than 40 years, and, parabass, centuries of wandering awayen the dream of the Hebrew philosopher, the topic and prophecy of the Hebrew prophet, the nope of the Hebrew prophet, the nope of the Hebrew states—man, seems about to be fulfilled; for, under the lead of the man who to-day is the most nowerful on earth—1 single is the most powerful on earth-1 single man standing out the central figure of all Europe—the man whose fame has pervaded even the school-boys' mind, so that it is said that when a question was put to one of them, "How is the map of Europe divided?" he replied, "By Beaconspeid." (Shouts of laughter, cries of "Good! good!" and applause.) Under the lead of him, the greatest man now living, and of your race, a pretectorate over Jerusalem was established, with him at the head of it. Would it not seem that the dream, the thought, the hope of the Hebrew statesman, poet, philosopher and propnet are about to be realize i? And supremely over all, over nobies and kings and emperors, stand the family whose leave is required by kings and emperors before they can go to war or before they can make peace. Their assent must be asked to the terms proposed. No great route for commerce between Europe and Asia can be opened without the consent of that family who have massed money, not for the sake of money a one-for their accumulations are past all dreams of avarice—but they are the accumulations of power which has made them greater than all. Need I call the name of the family of the Rothschilds to show the most powerful family on earth belonging to the race of people I see before man? (Prolong-u applause.)

What, then, is the destin, for you and yours, whenever you may roam? For what you are reserved belongs to the future. It is in the womb of time and can be known only to your great law giver, he who, in his providence, has preserved your people for some wise purpose, unknown to mankind, and is only to be guessed from the great results that have already come from his chosen people. These though's them n terane. They may well present themselves to your mind, and I cannot see how at y man of your race can feel otherwise that that he is the equal of the princes and the nobles of the earth (gr. a: app ruse;) and here in America you have that equality with all other ment of the opportunity of making yourselves what you are—I leading power in the some and the country—for the power of your people is feit and known Lete, and the inghest offices in the United 3 ates Senate and House of Represent tives have been filled by representatives of your peo-ple, few in comparison with the others though you may be; and when I re-member, and you remember what may be in store for you, do I not do well to call these matters of the past to your mines, so that every one of these young man may feel that he has a place to hi in the world—which reunires all the industry, all the insellience and all the good conduct possible to make himself the equal of these of his people who have gone before him? (Prolonged applause.) And I have not failed if I have inspired that proper and high ambition that should make and high ambition that should make any one of your children look upon the great efforts of his people, and endeavoring to follow their good example, whether in the charity of a Monteflore, in the statementally of a Beacoustield, or in the acquired we that and power of the Ratsunda, their examples of the Ratsunda, the ratsunda of t eellence, so great and so illustrious,

• • The people's right maintain, Unarmed by influence, unbribed by gain."

PRODIGAL Chicago has caught the reform spirit. In all parts of the country, public attention is fairly awakened to reformatory measures.

WITHIN the past four years the amount of State tax collected in New York has been reduced one-half. In 1874 the tax was $15,727,482; in 1878 i was $7,941,297.

AND yesterday he voted consistently on Vaughan's bill to reduce the price of the public printing.

HE said, "The thinking men in this Legislature will see that the public expenditures are not cut down." THE NEWS finds itself this morning indorsing Ben Butler-in what he said about the Jews at the Boston Hebrew Fair. The News has enjoyed a long and pleasant business intercourse with the Jews of Raleigh and Baltimore. LITTLE Delaware can afford to be laughed at. Her debt has been reduced $319,835 since 1875, leaving all liabilities over assetts $165,343. Justice holds a taut rein in that commonwealth of stocks and whipping-posts, and in four years the governor has pardoned but two criminal and remitted the same number of sentences.

NOT ONLY "old Lincoln" but the State is safe in Senator Graham's keeping. He is a bold, brusque Democratic retrancher. "Go back to 1860," is the key-note of the bill he introduced in the Senate yesterday. It is a business transaction. It is the application to the State of the same honorable and careful fugality and good sense which every shrewd business man applies to the management of his own affairs.

WE COMMEND to the Senators who so vigerously opposed Mr. Vanghan's bill reducing the price of the Bublic printirg in the Senate Visterday to the closing sentence of Gov. Robinson's [New York] messege:

"The laws which we enact do not ex"press our will; they are the voice of the people. The money which we "handle belongs to them, and not to us. "We can only take it from them for "the legitimate purposes of govern-"ment. More than this is robbery. "Official generosity is official crime."

SUNSET COX'S new census bill provides for its taking on the first day of June, 1880. A superintendent of the census is to be appointed by the president and confirmed by the senate. The clerical force is to be appointed by the secretary of the interior, and one or more supervisors for each state and dred and lifty, are to be nominated by the governors of the several States. The schedules of inquiries for the tenth census are to be the same as those contained in the act for the taking of the census of 1850, with some additional provisions. Three million dollars is fixed as the maximum cost of the census. The bill proposes subvention to any State or Territory which at intermediate five years may take a census and report the results to the secretary of the interior, the gov-

Our favorite daughter Tennessee is in trouble about her public debt. Mr. Sykes, a distinguished lawyer of Columbia, suggests a plan similiar to the one suggested by a News correspondent. He favors an "equitable settlement" of the debt, but that settlement, he says, should not call for over four per cent. interest. He thinks the new bonds should be of a small denomination, not exceeding $100, and as low as $25, the interest and principal to be payable at Nashville. The object in having bonds of a small denomination is that they may fall into the NATIONAL HOTEL. hands of the people of Tennessee, the farmers and mechanics of small meaus, who could use them in the purchase of property, in the payment of debts, or as an investment. These small bonds, bearing this small rate of interest, would become a part of the circulating medium of the country, and, although not a legal tender, would give great relief by being used in trade. The state could well afford, he thinks, to pay the interest on these bonds for the benefits they would confer in virtually enlarging the volume of local curreney. If the law taxing state-bond issues should be repealed by congress, these bonds might be used as a basis of banking as United States bonds are now used. These four per cent. bonds would have to be made non-taxable otherwise they would be of but little value, and when subject to state, county or municipal taxation would be driven out of the State.

and labor of the 41st Congress. In the next Congress Senator (then Representative) Hoar made the favorable report, half the other Massachusetts members agreed with him, and the bill was passed by a vote of 111 to 75, though it never reached a decision in the Senate. Senate together or single, and sound, trot fact, together or single, at 31½ Payettevnile Street.

In the laws has a sum of the nays. Northern Democrats killed it. Eight Republicans supported the bill, including Dr. Loring, Mr. Cox, of Ohio and the three negro Congressmen from South Carolina.

The Lobby.

Simon Sterne, a well known New York lawyer and a scholar in political economy, read an interesting paper before the American social science association last week on the lobby, legitimate and illegitimate.

Mr. Sterne gives in considerable detail the present manner of treating all bills for special or private legislation in the British Parliament. The present system of practice in this respect has grown up in about 30 years. Private bills are divided into two classes, one embracing all legislation pertaining to corporations, the other all involving the right of eminent domain. All bills of this character have to be filed in the 'private bills office" of Parliament, before the session begins, and those of the second-class must be accompanied by accurate surveys of the real estate involved and other information as to ownership and value. Notice of such legislation must be filed six weeks before the beginning of the session, and properly advertised. Copies of the same papers must be filed in the county clerk's office where the property is situated. A deposit of money must be made to cover the expense of the investigation. Parliamentary fficers, called examiners, first cite the parties before them and ascertain if these precautionary formalities have been fully complied with. If they have, the bill is formally introduced. The chairmen of the ways and means committee of the two houses determine the order in which they will take up the private bills of the session, and examine them in connection with a lawyer termed "the speaker's 'counsel." After other precautions, the bills go to committee, where the 'parliamentary agents" are heard pro and con. These are lawyers who pursue this department of practice and have a recognized and sometimes an eminent standing herein. It is a wholly legitimate procedure, in other words. Bills which are opposed are finally referred to committees of "referees," which have the power to call to sit with them persons not members of the House. This committee constitutes a regular court; with its calendar and its bar of recognized practitioners. The rules of evidence are more liberal than those in other courts and the decision of this committee is usually final with the Commons. The Parliament of Great Britain, we ought to premise, has a vast amount of special legislation on its hands and a system less elaborate and careful would open the door to the practice of general corruptio .. The expenses of procuring the passage of py bill by this process are about $1000, which must be deposited before the bill has any standing whatever. The passage of public bills in Parliament is practically not wide's different from procedure in our own Legis. latures or Congress. If a member cases a public measure so far as to make its passage probable, it will usually be adopted by the government as their own measure and carried through, unless directly hostile to the policy of the ministry. In Congress the rules of the House almost forbid a member from carrying through singlehanded a measure not reported from some committee: The rules of Conserved.

gress are quite as restrictive upon the gress are quite as the practice of We have the only the House of Commons. Mr. Sterne calculates that 18,000 ernment in such cases to pay half the pages of legislation are enacted annually in this country, most of which is of a private nature and with very little precaution as to its propriety.

The provision in our ownState constitu tion requiring private bills to be advertised is the only protection afforded the public from depredation by partial and selfish legislation, and this has not been very strictly enforced. The Roman law took the ground that special legislation was of the nature of an adjudication and should only be granted after trial.

The defeat of the bill for the relief of William and Mary College, in the House, is a piece of Democratic cowardice discreditable even to Northern Democrats. What we Est and Drink. At the meeting of the American Social Science Association at Boston, on Wednesday, George T. Angell, of Bosdon, read a paper on "Public Health Associations in Caies." He said: This is a free country. In France I was assured that no medicine could be sold in Paris which had not been approved a phoned?" compact defeats a substantial transfer of the said of the said of the said. by a "board" compos d of some of the est chemists of Paris. No physician could practice who had not been examined and approved by a "board" composed of some of the best physicians of Paris. Deadly poisons could only be sold by persons of good character, licensed by the police authorities to sell them. Perhaps no stronger evidence of the comparative freedom in this country can be adduced than that millions of dollars' worth of quack medicines, which no respectable physician would prescribe, are widely sold; that most daugerous poisons can be bought at hundreds of places in any of our large cities, without restriction. But these are only a few of the evidences that may be easily adduced to show the perfect freedom which prevails in this country. Take the adulteration of foods, for instance. One of the most eminent chemists of Massachusetts tells me that almost every class of articles now sold in this country for food is more or less adulterated, and that many of these aculterations are extremely poisonous. For instance, cayenne pepper is adulterated with red lead, mustard with chromate of lead, curry powder with red lead, vinegar with sulphuric acid, arsenic and corrosive sublimate. It is stated in the Scientific American that probably half the vinegar now sold in our cities is rank poison. One of our Boston chemists analyzed twelve packages of pickles, put up by twelve different wholesale dealers, and found copper in ten of them. Another chemist analyzed sixteen packages of pickies and found copper in all of them. Many of our flavoring oils, syrups, jellies and preserved fruits contain poisons. The adulterations of tea are too numerous to men. tion. Coffee is not only adulterated, but a patent has been taken out for molding chicory into the form of coffee berries, and I am told that clay is now moulded, and perhaps flavored with an essence, to represent coffee. Cocoa and chocolate are adulterated with various mineral substances. Several mills in New England, and probably many elsewhere, are now ens gaged in grinding white stone into powder for purposes of adulteration. At some of these mills they grind three grades-soda grade, sugar grade and flour grade. I am told that thousands of tons of it have been ground in one town of Massachusetts. It sells for about half a cent a pound. Flour has been adulterated in England, and probably here, with plaster of paris, bone dust, sand, clay, chalk and other articles. I am told that large quantities of damaged and unwholesome grain are ground in with flour, particularly with that kind called Graham flour. In 1874 a medical commission of five physicians, appointed by the Board of Health of Boston, reported that over a million and a half gallons of water were sold as milk in that city in that year. for which nearly $500,000 in money was paid. They state further that this water is likely to be taken from impure streams and barn-yard wells, and so to produce typhoid fever and other infectious diseases in those who drink it. In one instance thirty-four ases of typhoid fever were produced n twenty different families by drinking milk mixed with water taken from a well standing near a cesspool. It is not water alone that is mixed with milk. Thousands of gallons, and probably hundreds of thousands, are sold in our cities which have passed through large ns or vats in which it has been mixed with various substances. Large quantities of the meats of animals more or less diseased are sold in our markets. Cows, in the neighborhood of our large cities, are fed upon material which prouces a large flow of unwholesome milk. Poultry are fed upon material hich produces unwholesome eggs. leats and fish are made unwholesome, frequently poisonous, by careless and cruel methods of killing. Now take wines and liquors. A California chemist recently analyzed many samples of whisky purchased at different places in an Francisco. He found them adultereted with creosote, saits of copper, alum and other injurious substances. He states it in his published report as his opinion that there is hardly any pure whisky sold in that city. A gentleman recently purchased from a prominent firm a cask of pure sherry wine for his sick wife. His wife grew worse. He had the wine analyzed, and found there was not a drop of the juice of the grape in it. Large quanti-ties of our so-called European wines and liquors are manufactured here, shipped to Europe, re-shipped and sold here as the pure juice of the grape. A large portion of our California wines are made in Boston cellars. By the use of adulterations well known to the trade, forty gallons of compound is changed into brandy, whisky and other liquors at a cost of less than ten cents a gallon, and American and European labels are bought and pasted on the bottles. Now take our drugs and medicines. Here I cannot do better than quote the exact words of an eminent medical gentleman of Boston. He said to me: "The adulterations of drugs in this country are perfectly abominable. The physician orders a medicine for a patient in extreme danger. The medicine has only a quarter the strength it should have, because of its adulteration, and the patient dies." The use of arsenic, corrosive sublimate and other poisons has become common in ladies' dresses, in veils, in sewing silks, in threads, in artificial flowers, in gentles men's underclothing, in socks, in gloves, in hat linings, in linings of boots and shoes, in paper co lars, in colored enamelled cloths, and, doubt-less, in many other articles. These hey are found in woollens, silks, cottons and leather. Professor Nichols found eight grains of arsenic in a single rtificial flower. A child in Troy, N. , recently died in convulsions by takng arsenic from a green veil thrown

Is there any remedy for these things? They are increasing every year. They whose health is their only capital. In a city so distinguished as Boston for in-

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

DAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with hix; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL. For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are un-

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person about three gallons) passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. Bile is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. Merrell's Heratine, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty looking skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking Hepatine in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is given.

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY GUBF FOR SCROFULA

A BRIEF HISTORY: The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs Person's father. Mrs. Person lives in Franklinton, or in that section. A shild was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the Scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs arawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whiskey, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a south Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some Scrolulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to kittrell Springs. Noting did him any good. At Kittiell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. — wrote to Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. — wrote to Mrs. Person's fishe cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the south Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hondred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shorly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most graterul letter he knew how. Bless these old indians. We would like to nave one for a near neighbor."

Sept. 26. 1878, MRS, H, T, BROWN THREE CHILDREN IN THREE WEEKS. Mas Job Person:

Dear Madame—Your letter has been received, and on account of being absent from nome for a week or two, have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is within my power towards getting you patients for treatment of Scroula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for can be my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy, and in less than three weeks they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you. I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure and call on me, Yours truly, WM. H. ARISINGTON.

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrotula from the use of Mrs. Joe Yerson's remedy for that disease, I had suffered from Scrotula for more than three years, and had despaised of eve getting weit. I was treated during that time by three very emine t physicians, without any good resuit. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my fasmity physicians met with. After returned from the institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and 'healing properties, My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my nopes increased, my low spiritedues fied before the remedy, and I am now enjoying spiendid health and am in goodspirits. The remedy is mind as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is any opinion that it should be taken regularly by ali means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing smould prevent regularity in the use of the emedy and it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing smould prevent regularity in the use of the emedy and it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing smould prevent regularity in the use of the emedy and it have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try 1 and 2 cure it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure iron the use of it and I am under many and asting obligations to Mrs. Per on for the great relief in have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try 1 and be cured, is my advice. "It will Cure if Fairly Tested."

JAMES A. MORBIS.

Myreceipt for the cure of Scrofula has My receipt for the cure of Serofula has been tried by my with the most unorsecutive success for the hast twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general fonte and Blood further, it is everywhere giving periods satisfaction, while my experience within the book for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of he blood and probably for other diseases,

A CAME OF CANCER.

FAYATTEVILLS, S. C., aug. 12, 18.8.

MRE. JORYELSON:

Dear Madarn—I have been using your Remedy for scrowla over five months as an experiment for cancer, the cancer is of long standing, the d cors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper ip and a good part of my mose. When a begin to good part of my mose. When a begin to good part of my mose. When a begin to good part of my mose. When a begin to good part of my mose when a begin of the medicine seemed to cake it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and it was without several days. It tuen seeme at ostart one y, and grew worse very fast until i nad taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I sound have had the medicine soon enough, I would have the medicine soon enough, I would have the medicine soon medicine. I would have a cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the neart, an irregularity in its action. If would have a very hird beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine. I am almost entitlely releved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recom ac d any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alleratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and hespectfully, Symptom of the medical of the profession to the last its attail, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Bishop Atkinson's Lecture.

The lecture of Bishop Atkinson at Tucker Hall last evening was as usual interesting and scholarly. The theme was benevolent institutions, and he spoke particularly of Guilds, as associations which accomplish great good. In the course of his remarks he spoke of the growth of St. John's Guild, and said that though yet in its infancy it had won its way to success. Now a free Hospital has been established which it is proposed to make an insti-tution of the city. He said that this was a practical way of impressing christianity upon those not christians. as kindness is a thing whose meaning and whose value are at once grasped by all. Closing, he impressively said that it was the prayer of all that this Guild and its Hospital might continue to prosper and be a great blessing.
